"Welcome home, beloved pastor! Earnest prayers were not in vain; God has heard, and in his mercy. Brought thee to thy charge again. Welcome home, beloved pastor! He who calmed the waves to sleep. He who stilled the raging tempest, Led thee safely o'er the deep.

Welcome home! Welcome home! Welcome to thy charge again.

Now with joy our eyes beacld thee, While the dews of heavenly grace, From our Father's throne descending, Fill this consecrated place. Happy greeting! Pastor-people-All united, join to sing, Lord we give Thee all the glory, For the joy these moments bring.

If the bonds of christian feeling Bind our hearts in ties so strong. What, oh what, will be our transport, When we swell the heavenly song. When beneath the hallowed arches Of the bright celestial dome, Friends and loved ones gone before us; Shout for joy our welcome home.
